

Emerge

Every year, Emerge—a group of donors who support the museum's acquisition and education programs—selects and collectively funds the purchase of a work by an artist not currently represented in the MCA Collection. These works are under consideration for this year's acquisition.